CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS Chairman of the Board, Houston Rockets

To paraphrase an April, 1984 column by Dale Robertson in the Houston Post, Charlie Thomas knows nothing about being a pro sports franchise owner. He hasn't forced trades, doesn't criticize his employees in the press, hasn't threatened to move the team and doesn't have his limited partners trying to lynch him.

"Kidding, of course," said Robertson. "Thomas is what all owners should be. He operates the Rockets like he does all his financial interests — as a business. He entrusts good people with responsibility, then leaves them alone to do what they're being paid for."

Since Thomas purchased the team in June, 1982, from the Maloof Family of Albuquerque, N.M., this 8th owner in the 14-year history of the franchise in Houston has made some impressive improvements for the good of the franchise. It starts at the highest level where he brought in Austin (Tx.) developer Gary Bradley as a 20 percent owner. On the management level Thomas rewarded long-time President and General Manager Ray Patterson with a life-time contract and former Coach of the Year Bill Fitch with a long term pact as Head Coach.

A little luck entered in as Thomas, with the aid of expert advice from daughter Tracy, emerged from coin flips which netted him the top picks in the last two college drafts, 7-4 Ralph Sampson and 7-0 Akeem Olajuwon. The Rockets own selection of Rodney McCray as the 3rd choice of the 1983 draft gives Thomas three of the top four picks of the last two years.

The franchise has one of the finest broadcast packages in pro sports, with all games being broadcast on KPRC Radio and all home games telecast on Home Sports Entertainment Cable. All but a handful of road games come into Houston living rooms on KTXH TV Channel 20.

A Texan since 1956 when he joined an automobile dealership in Corpus Christi, Thomas was born in Knoxville, Tenn. In 1959 he joined a Ford dealership in San Antonio, Tx., serving as General Manager under B.J. "Red" McCombs, the present owner of the N.B.A. Denver Nuggets. Angelo Drossos, the President of the San Antonio Spurs, was a salesman in that dealership.

Thomas purchased his first auto agency in 1967 and now owns 20 in the Southwest. He has parlayed that into investments in ranching, insurance, real estate, television, hotels, a ski resort and a restaurant. He is Chairman of BancTexas Westheimer and serves on the Board of the BancTexas Group. In 1982 Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, honored him as their "Mr. Sportsman."

He and his wife, Kittsie, make their home in River Oaks. They are the parents of three daughters, Kelly, Robin and Tracy.

GARY BRADLEY Vice-Chairman of the Board, Houston Rockets

Gary Bradley, an Austin (Tx.) real estate developer, purchased a 20 percent interest in the Houston Rockets August 15, 1984. He joins Sidney Shlenker as a Vice-Chairman of the Rockets' Board. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 percent interest while Shlenker has a six percent holding. The remaining 20 percent is shared by 30 limited partners. Bradley, 36, is a native of Amherst, Tx., a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the past 18 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. He has been involved in the Austin real estate market since graduation. Regarding his 1977 Rob Roy development, Texas Monthly (May, 1984) said: "Located in the hills overlooking a scenic bend in Lake Austin, Rob Roy is considered by many developers to be the seminal land deal in Austin real estate history — financially, environmentally, and politically."

RAY A. PATTERSON

President and General Manager, Houston Rockets

"Ray Patterson can be my President and General Manager as long as he wants," said Rockets Chairman Charlie Thomas last May 3, in awarding him a lifetime contract to manage the team. "In the two years I've owned the club, he has proven himself. I feel I can totally rely on him to make the proper decisions to improve our product."

It's not the first time that Patterson has heard words of praise from a club owner. But this time there was a definite ring of security to it. None of seven previous owners of the Rockets was around long enough to assure such security. "Until Charlie came into the Rockets' picture, a major concern of mine almost every other year was the selling of the club. That does not make for good long-term health of the franchise," says Patterson. "But with Charlie and the recent addition of Gary Bradley to the ownership, this franchise has been nourished for long range goals."

During his 16 years as an operating officer in the N.B.A., a term equaled by Jerry Colangelo at Phoenix and surpassed only by Red Auerbach's 32 years at Boston, Patterson has the distinction of being the only General Manager in the league's 38-year history to have had two teams in the World Championship Series. His 1971 Milwaukee Bucks claimed the title with the quickest leap, just three years, from expansion to World Champion. The 1981 Rockets lost in the final round to the Boston Celtics.

Patterson was voted by his peers as the 1977 Sporting News N.B.A. Executive of the Year as the Rockets won the Central Division with the best record in club history, 49-33. The team has won at least 40 games in seven of the last ten years, reaching the playoffs six times. From a franchise low attendance average of 3,855 in 1973-84, the club set an all-time mark of 11,710 in 1981-82. Only the third General Manager in the 18 years of the Rockets franchise, Patterson was preceded by Jack McMahon (1967-68) and Pete Newell (1968-72).

Holder of Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin where he was team captain and Most Valuable Player on the basketball team his final two seasons, Patterson played professional basketball with the Flint, Mich. team in the old National Basketball League. He returned to his prep school, Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis. as basketball coach in 1949 and was named President and Headmaster of the school in 1954. He was named President of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1968 and came to Houston as President and General Manager of the Rockets in May, 1972.

Ray and his wife, Ruth, reside in Sugarland, Tx. They have five youngsters, with daughter Peggy and son Pete attending the University of Texas.

SIDNEY L. SHLENKER

Vice-Chairman of the Board, Houston Rockets

During the early 1970's, Sidney Shlenker was President of the Astrodomain Corporation and the Houston Astros Baseball Club. After leaving those posts in 1977, he returned to the local sports scene as Vice-Chairman of the Houston Rockets when he and Charlie Thomas purchased the club in June, 1982. From basketball to banking to Broadway to broadcasting, Shlenker's business ventures are varied and successful. He is a partner in Pace Management, which markets and produces major entertainment and sports events. He is Chairman of Allied Bank - West Loop. He has produced several Broadway shows, including "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat", "A View From The Bridge", and "Smile". He was involved in the inception of Channel 21 in Dallas and Channel 20 in Houston. He recently took over the promotion and marketing of Emeric, a 63-year old French artist. Shlenker was born in Monroe, La., but has lived in Houston since age two. He attended Tulane University in New Orleans.

BILL FITCH

Head Coach, Houston Rockets

After being part of a Boston Celtics World Championship in 1981 and viewing the Celtics celebrate another title last spring, Houston Rockets Head Coach Bill Fitch said he had no pangs of regret for having exited Beantown. "First, I had those guys when they were babies and I still feel close to them. Nobody is happier about their championship than I am," said Fitch. "But I'm pleased to be in Houston because I know we can do it here, too, a few years down the road. Maybe it was a little easier with the Celtics because of talent and tradition. But if we can all pull on the same rope, it'll happen here."

And Bill Fitch knows whereof he speaks. He has been down all the roads, on all levels of coaching, 26 years as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level, the last 14 in the N.B.A. He had only two losing seasons in his 12 on the college level, at Coe, his Alma Mater in Iowa, at North Dakota, at Bowling Green and at Minnesota. He has seen only seven losing N.B.A. campaigns, but five of those were in the first years of the expansion Cleveland franchise. He took the fledgling Cavs to the playoffs three times and won Coach of the Year honors with a 49-33 mark in 1975-76 which stands as the top record in club history.

In 1979 Fitch moved to a Boston Celtics club coming off a 29-win season, the poorest mark in three decades. A 32-game turnaround led to a 61-win season and the first of three straight 60 victory campaigns, the 186-60 record the second best three years in N.B.A. history, trailing only Milwaukee's 189-57 in 1972-74. Fitch took Coach of the Year honors for the second time in his N.B.A. career with his first Boston team. He remains the only coach to win that honor with two different franchises since the award's inception in 1963.

Following a 56-26 1982-83 season, third best mark in the N.B.A., Fitch resigned his post with Boston, citing his need for a new challenge. Less than a week later he signed on as head coach of the Rockets, who were coming off their worst season in history, a 14-68 record. Despite a starting line-up with only one holdover from the previous season and half of the players new to the roster, Fitch directed his club to more than double the previous year's win total, with 29.

The sixth winningest coach in N.B.A. history, Fitch's 575 victories starting this season trail only Red Auerbach, 938, Jack Ramsay, 703, Red Holzman, 696, Gene Shue, 685, and Dick Motta, 665. And he still considers chemistry the most important ingredient in turning a losing club into a winner. "Chemistry and unselfishness remain the common denominators of all great clubs."

After graduation from Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Fitch began his coaching career as a baseball mentor and assistant basketball coach at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. where he received a Masters degree in educational psychology. He returned to Coe as basketball coach and after four years there moved on to five years at North Dakota where he made two trips to the NCAA Division II Final Four. He then won a Mid-American Conference title in his only season at Bowling Green and concluded his collegiate coaching with two years at Minnesota.

CARROL DAWSON

Assistant Coach, Houston Rockets

Carroll Dawson is in his fifth season as an assistant coach of the Houston Rockets but last March got his first N.B.A. win in relief of the head coach. It should be noted that the assistant usually takes over when the club is hopelessly behind and the head coach releases his frustrations on the officials and takes an early exit. This is Dawson's second season under Bill Fitch after three as an aide to Del Harris. A native of Alba, Texas where his final prep team was 44-3; he won Junior College All-American honors at Paris, Texas under Coach Boyd Converse. In two college years at Baylor under Coach Bill Menefee he led the Bears in scoring and rebounding. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Menefee, the present Baylor athletic Director. In 1973 he succeeded Menefee as head coach for three and a half seasons. He worked as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys and with the Converse Rubber Company prior to joining the Rockets in 1980.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach, Houston Rockets

Rudy Tomjanovich, the first member of the Houston Rockets to have his number (45) retired, is in his second full season as an assistant coach after having scouted for two years. He spent his entire career of 11 seasons with the Rockets, having been the second player taken, behind Bob Lanier, in the 1970 draft. He scored 13,383 points, second to Calvin Murphy on the club list in that category, and had 6,198 rebounds, behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. He averaged 17.4 points and hit .501 from the field. He was selected to play in the All-Star Game five times and was a starter in the 1979 game played at Pontiac, Mich. A native of Hamtramck, Mich., he is the all-time rebound leader and second highest scorer, behind Cazzie Russell, at the University of Michigan. Rudy and his wife, Sophie, reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole, 11, and Melissa, 8, and son, Rudy III, 2.

DICK VANDERVOORT

Trainer, Houston Rockets

Dick Vandervoort has been the only trainer and traveling secretary the Houston Rockets have had since the club moved to Houston in 1971. Last season he marked his 1,000th regular season game and his 13 seasons now amounts to 1,066. He is Chairman of the N.B.A. Trainer's Association and ranks as the 5th most senior trainer in the N.B.A. Only Joe O'Toole, Atlanta, Dick D'Olive, Golden State, Al Domencio, Philadelphia and Joe Proski, Phoenix, have been with their clubs longer. Prior to joining the Rockets Dick was head trainer at Washington State University for 11 seasons. One of his athletes was Houston Oiler Head Coach Hugh Campbell. A native of Concordia, Kansas, Dick is a 1958 graduate of the University of Kansas. The father of sons Mark, 21, and Todd, 19, Dick and his wife, Concetta, reside in Northwest Houston.

GENE PETERSON

Broadcaster, Houston Rockets

A fan favorite for his descriptive accounts of game action, Gene Peterson is in his 10th season as the radio voice of the Houston Rockets. Joining the club for the 1975-76 season after a year as Sports Director of KPRC Radio, Gene has broadcast 738 regular season and 45 playoff games for the team for a 9-year total of 783 games. His popular game coverage again will be heard on KPRC Radio-950 AM. A native of Albert Lea, Minn., Peterson studied broadcasting at the Brown Institute in Minneapolis and, following Air Force duty, began his career at WECL in Eau Claire, Wis. He worked at KOB in Albuquerque, N.M. and KCMO in Kansas City, Mo. before joining KPRC. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood with son Paul, 12, Son Todd, 21, and daughter, Jennifer, 18, attend Southwest Texas State in San Marcos.

THE SUMMIT

The Summit, home of the National Basketball Association Houston Rockets, is a 17,000 seat sports and entertainment facility. Capacity for Rockets' games is 16,016.

Between 1.5 and 2 million patrons attend in excess of 175 events at The Summit each year. In addition to the Houston Rockets, The Summit annually hosts Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, Ice Capades, the Lipizzan Stallions, the Harlem Globetrotters, Disney's Great Ice Odyssey, Sesame Street Live and an array of concerts, sports and family entertainment events.

John Crowe Productions, The Summit's in-house television production company, regularly provides production facilities for live color broadcasts to the networks. The Summit's two 15' x 20' closed circuit color television screens, suspended at each end of the arena, make every seat front row quality. These screens provide instant replay, slow-motion, stop-action, and live interview capabilities for all events.

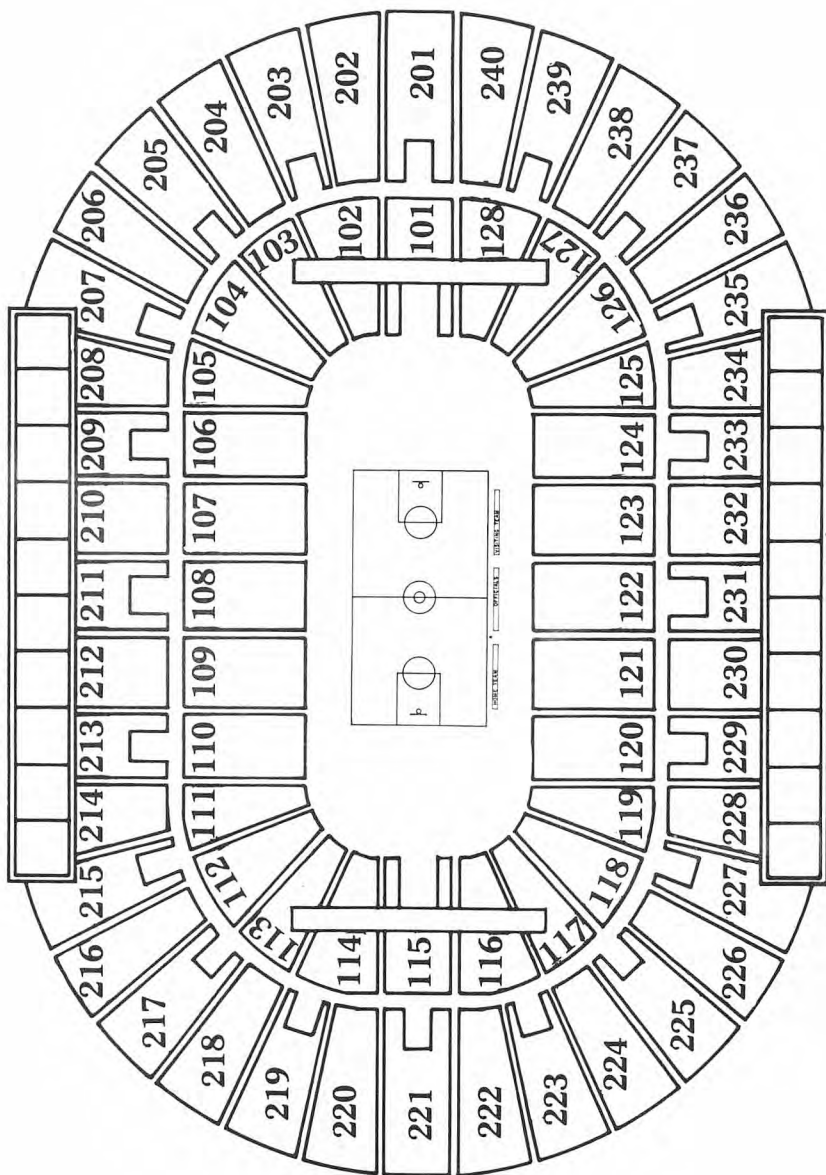

The television production facilities are a perfect complement to the accommodations that The Summit offers the working media. Press facilities include a workroom, lounge, and dining area for 200 persons.

Ideally suited only 5 minutes from downtown Houston, The Summit is located in Greenway Plaza, one of the most advanced commercial complexes in the nation. There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants within a 2-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.

The Summit, the premiere sports and entertainment facility in the Southwest, is proud to be home of the Houston Rockets.

*Rookie of the Year

19 coin tosses: tails 12, heads 7. Heads last 3 years, tails five straight prior to last 3. Tails 12 of last 16 years. The team calling has made correct call 7 times, but only twice in last 8 years.

Ralph Sampson and Lew Alcindor have been the only first picks in the last 18 years to become Rookie of the Year while the 2nd pick has earned the honor eight times.

Rockets involvement in coin flips:

- 1984 Houston Rockets selected Akeem Olajuwon as the top pick after Portland incorrectly called tails. Portland chose Sam Bowie second.
- 1983 Houston Rockets called heads to win the flip with Indiana and selected Ralph Sampson as the top pick while Indiana chose Steve Stipanovich second.
- 1976 Houston Rockets, after Atlanta had won the flip with Chicago for the top pick, traded Joe Meriweather and Gus Bailey to Atlanta for Dwight Jones and an exchange of 1st round picks which gave Houston the first pick with which they selected John Lucas while Atlanta, with Houston's 1st round pick, 9th overall, selected Armond Hill.
- 1970 San Diego Rockets lost the flip by calling heads and selected Rudy Tomjanovich second while Detroit won the flip and took Bob Lanier.
- 1968 San Diego Rockets won the flip by calling heads and selected Elvin Hayes while Baltimore chose Wes Unseld second.
